WEST FEST EVENT IN AGHAMORE

Music fans can look forward to a cool new festival called West Fest, which kicks off over the June Bank Holiday Weekend 2011.

Mayo's answer to Oxegen/Electric Picnic - without the mud and traffic jams - and Connacht's biggest music event of 2011, will be held in Aghamore at the Community Sports Grounds.

West Fest will be a two day event running on the 4th and 5th of June. It will be a bank holiday weekend to remember with an amazing line up over the two nights. Camping will also be available for those of you wishing to attend both nights. And there is no need to worry about the weather because all the music is under a Big Top tent (as seen at Oxegen) which has a capacity of 5,000 people.

Some of the acts already lined up to perform over the weekend are: Republic of Loose, Sharon Shannon and the Big Band and special guest Damien Dempsey, Ryan Sheridan, The Kilkennys, Bagatelle, The Big Generator, Brush Shiels and i102-104 D.J. Fergal D'Arcy. More to be confirmed..

There is also a chance for young bands to support the big acts on the day. Auditions will be held in the Park Hotel in Kiltimagh on the 16th of January.

Tickets will go on sale on the 6th of December 2010, the perfect gift for those of you wondering what to buy loved-ones this Christmas. Available online from:

West Fest will be run in association with Mayo / Roscommon Hospice Foundation.
